We are pleased to offer this opportunity to financially assist your family.

ITBP Eleanor Mason Memorial Scholarship Fund Application 2021-2022 School Year

The Selection committee* is a team of FUMC members who do not have any affiliation with our preschool ministry except for this committee. They are neutral towards each family therefore ensuring the integrity of the selection process. This selection process is completely confidential. The selection committee may ask the Director about an applicant to gain further clarity, however, the director will not be privileged to any of their financial information nor will she be allowed to read the application. The selection committee is committed to hold these families in the highest respect, compassion and confidentiality. The Committee will notify those families awarded scholarships the week of June 18, 2021 or within 30 days of applying if after June 18 for the new school year. All financial paperwork will be shredded by the committee. Notification of your new tuition payment schedule, to the selected families will be mailed the beginning of July 2021.

*During the summer months, the Preschool Advisory Team in conjunction with the Selection Committee will make the decision for the family if other requests or circumstances change after the June award date. All the names are kept in strict confidentiality and only the Director and Student Account Specialist and Treasurer will know who they are.

Thank you and best of luck to you.

In Christ Service,

The Preschool Advisory Team and Scholarship Selection Committee
